

Day 12

Fathers Equip Sons

Scripture

“And he gave some, apostles... for the perfecting of the saints...” – Ephesians 4:11–12 (KJV)

Insight

A father’s role is to equip sons and daughters for their God-given assignments. Equipping involves teaching, training, impartation, and correction.

When you allow yourself to be equipped, you grow faster and stronger than trying to navigate life alone. The enemy thrives in isolation, but equipping happens in community under leadership.

An equipped believer is a dangerous weapon against the kingdom of darkness.

Reflective Questions

- Am I positioning myself to be fully equipped?

Actionable Steps

- Commit to completing any training your mentor recommends.

Meditation

Picture yourself in a training ground, surrounded by wise leaders and mentors who sharpen your skills and deepen your understanding. Each lesson, correction, and impartation is a tool added to your arsenal. You’re not alone—you are part of a spiritual lineage, being built up to stand strong, lead well, and advance God’s kingdom with boldness.

God bless you!
