Week 2 - Principles of Biblical Prosperity.

Theme - Building A financial Lifestyle that honors God.

Day 13 - Multiple Streams of Income

Scripture

Ecclesiastes 11:2 – “Invest in seven ventures, yes, in eight; you do not know what disaster may come upon the land.”

The Bible encourages diversification. Don't depend on just one income source. Just like Eden had four riverheads (Genesis 2:10–14), God can give you multiple financial inflows.

Insight

Jobs, investments, businesses, real estate, digital assets—any of these could be added to your existing stream of income. Look beyond what you see, and have your mind positioned in the possibility that you could have multiple streams of income.

Look out for opportunities around you where you can provide services in exchange for finances. Wealthy people rarely rely on a single stream. Begin by monetizing your gifts or exploring side income.

Reflective Questions

- What gifts or passions do I have that could be monetized?
- Am I open to God showing me new financial paths I haven't considered?
- Have I limited myself to one source of provision?

Actionable Steps

1. Write down three passions or skills you can monetize.
2. Research one of them today.
3. Set a launch target date.

Meditation

Picture the Garden of Eden with its four riverheads flowing in different directions—each carrying life, provision, and sustenance. Just as God designed

Eden with diverse sources, envision your life with streams of income branching from your talents, ideas, and obedience. Let your faith and curiosity guide you toward discovering and stewarding these rivers.

God bless you!
