

Day 14

Fathers Defend Sons

Scripture

“And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children...” – Malachi 4:6 (KJV)

Insight

A true father does not abandon his children in times of conflict. He defends, covers, and intercedes for them.

Paul defended the Gentile believers before the apostles in Jerusalem. He stood for them when they were misunderstood.

This covering is one of the greatest blessings of having a spiritual father—knowing you are not fighting alone.

Reflective Questions

- Am I secure in the defense of my spiritual covering?

Actionable Steps

- Trust your mentor's guidance in situations where you feel under attack.

Meditation

Visualize a battle scene where fiery arrows are coming against you. Suddenly, a strong figure steps in front of you, shielding you from the blows. You are not exposed or abandoned; you are covered and defended. This is the power of fatherhood in the Spirit—knowing that someone stands in your corner, fighting alongside you.

God bless you!
