

Day 17 – Favor Brings Divine Connections

Scripture

Ruth 2:10 – “Then she fell on her face... and said... why have I found grace in thine eyes, that thou shouldest take knowledge of me, seeing I am a stranger?”

Devotional Thought

Ruth was a foreign widow with no qualifications for favor, yet God connected her to Boaz, her destiny helper. Favor brings divine connections to people who will bless and uplift your life.

When God favors you, the right people will notice, help, and bless you. It only takes one God-ordained connection to change your story forever.

Practical Application

Ask God to align you with destiny helpers and remove wrong associations from your life.

Meditation

God's favor connects me with helpers of destiny.

Prayer

Father, by Your favor, connect me with those You have ordained to bless, uplift, and position me for destiny fulfillment.
