

Day 21 — Eternal Life Gives You Strength to Endure

Scripture:

"They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength." — Isaiah 40:31

Key Thought:

Eternal life sustains you when human strength fails.

Devotional Insight:

There are moments when life feels heavy — but the divine life within you never runs out. God's strength renews, refreshes, and restores. Waiting on Him is not weakness; it's plugging into divine energy that never fades.

Reflection:

When I'm weary, do I run to God's strength or my own efforts?

Prayer:

Father, I receive Your strength today. Let Your life in me rise above weariness and renew my faith. Amen.
